

Social Media and Internet Policy

1. Introduction

The AHS acknowledges the importance of the internet and social media sites such as Facebook, Twitter, Linked in, home web-pages, chat rooms, BBM and all other forms of electronic communication and the role which "social media" plays in the day to day lives of members. This policy note is to remind members that the Rules of the AHS apply to members when using social media and the internet. Failure to adhere to this policy note could lead to disciplinary action being taken against a member.

2. Using social media

2.1 You should be aware that the AHS may, from time to time, carry out internet Searches to identify postings which include references to the AHS and its members.

2.2 AHS produced images are the subject of copyright and should not be copied or used in social media save as provided in the AHS website user terms and conditions.

2.3 You should ensure that any material that you transmit or post to social media is clearly stated to be your personal view and is not held out to be, or could be mistaken as, the view of the AHS.

2.4 You must not post or transmit any material which could damage the name or reputation of the AHS, its members or former members, or which is derogatory to the character of or prejudicial to the interests of the AHS.

2.5 You must not post or transmit any material relating to the AHS., members or former members or their horses or ponies, or which could otherwise be associated with or which may reasonably be attributed as coming from the AHS:

2.5.1 that is threatening, defamatory, obscene, indecent, seditious, offensive, Pornographic, abusive, liable to incite racial hatred, discriminatory, menacing, scandalous, inflammatory, blasphemous, in breach of confidence, in breach of privacy or which may cause annoyance, distress or inconvenience; or

2.5.2 which constitutes or encourages conduct that would be in breach of the AHS Rules, or constitutes a criminal offence, or which could give rise to civil liability, or otherwise be contrary to the laws of, or infringe the rights of any third party in, the UK or any other country in the world.

2.6. Any breach of this policy may constitute a breach of the AHS Rules and could also lead to civil and/or criminal proceedings being brought against you.

3. Disclosure under law or regulation

You should be aware that the AHS will fully co-operate with any law enforcement authorities or court order requesting or directing the AHS to disclose the identity or locate anyone posting any material in breach of this policy. If we are requested by the police or any other regulatory or government authority investigating suspected illegal activities to provide your personal information, the AHS is entitled to do so.
